

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS + ARCHITECTURE

HONORS PROGRAM

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Small class size
- Focused advising
- Access to honors housing
- Extra-curricular activities
- Research grants
- Honors College membership

ENRICHED ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

- Between coursework and extracurricular activities, AAHP provides an enriched academic and interdisciplinary experience for the college's most talented and self-motivated undergraduate students.
- AAHP students take an active and engaged role in their own education within an interdisciplinary curriculum created around the shared nature of the built, visual, and performing arts.
- AAHP students not only explore connections between their various artistic disciplines, but also between the arts and the community.

UNC CHARLOTTE
College of Arts + Architecture

DO YOU SEE YOURSELF AS A COA+A HONORS STUDENT?

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to apply for AAHP, students must:

- Be an incoming freshman or sophomore in the first or second year of study
 - Have a declared major in one of the five units of CoA+A
 - Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5
 - Be prepared to enroll in the 2-credit AAHP 2600: Introduction to Honors Seminar in the Spring semester of their first year
-

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Interested students should submit a 500-word essay, transcript, and letter of recommendation. More detailed information can be found under the “prospective students” link on the program website
 - Applications must be mailed or sent electronically to the program director, Dr. Jae Emerling: J.Emerling@uncc.edu
-

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete 17 hours of honors coursework as follows:

AAHP 2600: Arts and Architecture Honors Seminars (2 credits)

Two other courses from the following list (3 credits each)

- Honors UWRT 1103
- Honors LBST 110X Arts and Society
- Honors LBST 2102 Global Connections
- Honors LBST 2211 Ethical Issues
- Honors LBST 2215 Citizenship
- HONR 3700 Honors College Topics

Two AAHP 300X Honors Seminars (3 credits each)

AAHP 3900 Honors Thesis (3 credits)

- Taken during the student’s final semester with a grade of “A”
-

FOR MORE DETAILS, VISIT COAA.UNCC.EDU/ACADEMIC/HONORS